

Northern Missouri. In a memorial to the United States Congress, Joseph Smith, Sidney Rigdon, and Elias Higbee described in detail the violent conflict in Missouri between church members, vigilantes, and the state militia during the 1830s. Many of the events that led to the Saints' expulsion from Missouri in 1838 occurred in the state's northern counties.